President of the National Track and field Association

Dear President,

Re: New CECS Level 2 Throws Course

The IAAF RDC San Juan invites one coach from your Member Federation to take part of our New CECS Level 2 Throws Coaching Course to be hosted during the period of November 26 to December 3th, 2016. The travel arrangements for the participants must be done arriving on November 25 with return on December 4th, 2016. The hosting country for the course is El Salvador.

The ideal candidate for our course is somebody with some or most of the criteria bellow:

- Be recommended by the Member Federation
- Be eligible to take the former IAAF system (2008-2015) level 3 Throws as specialty
- Be certified in the IAAF level 2 previous system
- Be certified in your national Coaches education System at the higher levels. Please specify the
- Physical abilities to demonstrate track and field events in the practical sessions. Be able to run, jump and throw
- Write and speak in English

The IAAF RDC San Juan will cover the plane ticket expenses up to a maximum of 500 US dollars. The IAAF RDC San Juan will cover housing, ground transportation and meals from your participant.

As selection criteria it will be necessary to receive the participant's email, Curriculum Vitae and personal information (email, phone, passport copy). There is attached a list of all of the eligible coaches to do this course. If by any chance your country decides that the coach (es) in the list from your country is (are) not a suitable to participate please suggest a coach that is a better option and justify it. The CV will be evaluated to approve your candidate's eligibility. If your country never had an IAAF CECS level 2 course does not have anybody eligible consider to propose somebody with a broad expertise and experience in the throws events. If that would be the case please suggest somebody and justify the person. After the curriculum review a confirmation of acceptance will be sent. The deadline to comply this process is November 17, 2016. For more information please contact our IAAF RDC San Juan ASAP.
